The touching love story of two Air Force brats who have lost their loved ones in the horrors of war, sunk into depression and end up homeless in Central Park, just to discover each other and find out that happiness may be just a stone throw away, yet in a direction very few would dare to consider. The story takes the reader into circles where the blind struggle for daily subsistence and sanity overrides political correctness, giving us a unique perspective of societal view with sometimes hilarious and other times dramatic accounts of human beings on the outside fringe of the American dream. A sense of silent panic converges into a sigh of relief when the happiness of two lonely and desperate people brings closure and peace to many other Central Park homeless inhabitants whose lives have been ravaged by an endless and brutal fight for survival. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
