

Expansion of Grameen Bank

By Hossain, Afif / Nazarius Neng, Bama

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The role of Corporate Governance and Corporate Social Responsibility | In the past few years many businesses has suffered some serious setbacks and some banks have even undergone bankruptcy. That s why Corporate Governance (CG) and Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) have increasingly become very important in the recent years. This book investigates the role played by CG and CSR in business expansion. Further it examines what is CG and CSR and how it can bring about growth in a business. For better understanding of the theories we used a case study approach and chose Grameen Bank (GB) a Bangladeshi bank because of its tremendous success and growth over the years even in the middle of the turbulent financial crisis. We wish to find out the role CG and CSR played in this success critically. The expected contributions of this work will be to see the visibility of CG CSR in a bank like GB which has deviated from conventional banking models and how this has influenced its growth. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 76 pp.
