Africans are transforming and moving higher above the rest! From the doldrums as a people who were once settled on ordinary living, they are now becoming the best to ever happen in the 21st century! They are stepping out to explore the wilderness of the extra-ordinary. Africans are now are looking for their own place among the stars, not only want but demand to live greatly and soar among the clouds, to walk among the giants, to dance with the stars. They are people within Africa that have lit these fires that are making Africans roaring and unstoppable. Not only they have lit them but are fuelling these fires to become giant dangerous wildfires that are rocking the world. I see you developing as a movement of powerful, brilliant, uncompromising women, fearlessly proud of yourselves, driving social change. As you do so, be unashamedly proud of who you are and your success. Fly anywhere and everywhere while grounded on African soil. - Graca Machel, in an address to the scholars Graca Machel is the face of Africa, and she has been that way even before she met and married the world famous leader and global freedom fighter Nelson Mandela. In fact it seems her marriage to Nelson Mandela is something that she does not boast about. It seems her honor and title as the First Lady of the free democratic South Africa is downplayed deliberately.
