Either you have all of God's nature or you have none of God's nature. The nine fruits will grow in your life only if you possess the nature of God. The first Adam was not born; he was formed. Therefore, we must return back to that which we were before we were born and start a new beginning in order to receive the same knowledge that he received. Adam received his knowledge before he committed sin and we must do the same. This book will lead you back to a new beginning.
