Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifty Years of Education for Librarianship: Papers Presented for the Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the University of Illinois Library School, March 2, 1943 Most of the papers reproduced on the following pages were prepared for oral delivery. Their original style and content have been preserved as far as possible. Since they were prepared by different persons, each with his own point of view, the volume naturally lacks the unity to be expected of a work from the pen of a single writer. Nevertheless, each part bears relationship to the whole. Taken in their entirety, the papers are a contribution to the history of professional education for librarianship in America. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
