Glendurgan Garden, near Falmouth, Cornwall, England, was laid out by Alfred Fox in the 1820s and 1830s. The garden s three valleys invite exploration and support a fabulous array of subtropical species. Glendurgan even has its own Jungle! If you don t lose yourself in there, the garden s famed Maze will keep you entertained a while, and when you want to take a break from all that exploring, you can even hit the beach! This guidebook shows you as many of Glendurgan s highlights as can be crammed into 32 pages but, rest assured, there s much more. As well as detailed information about the plantings, you can read about the people who were inspired by this setting to create what you see today.
