The place which stood for its portrait is Charlemont, near the eastern opening of the Hoosac tunnel. Here Mr. Warner spent his boyhood, removing to the place, when his father died, from Plainfield, in the same State, where he was born September 12, 1829. He was five years old when he was taken to Charlemont, and he remained there eight years, and then removed to Cazenovia, (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.) This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who state that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).
