Excerpt from The Devil s Visit: Why He Came, What He Said, Why He Left, and the Present He Sent, a Poem for the Times We plead old Satan s deluding temptation. We indulge pleasant vices, great and small, And make him the scape goat for them all; When the real truth is, I am bound to say, We usually meet him at least half way. Nay; frequently, when the longing is great, We go all the way, and don t for him wait. This being so, does not justice require That I should fully and fairly inquire, Before deciding this or that way.
