I remember the first time I made a decision to make the choice to own myself, giving myself the right to defend my life and integrity, a decision to act on my behalf and not make or accept excuses. I was two years old. I woke up to the noise of my Daddy fighting with my Mother. Even at age two, this did not seem normal to me, so I made a decision to do something. Our yard had hedges growing in front. I went into the yard, and as small as I was, I managed to break a switch off the hedges. I rushed over to my Daddy and Mother and began beating him with the broken hedge. It was a child s way of defending my mother, but I made the choice, at age two, to whip him and to stop him from hurting my mom. As an Advocate for abused people of any ethnic group, for...
