Nicole Tatara, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. What happens when two very different dogs, a pure bred Siberian Husky and a German Shepard / Labrador Retriever mix, occupy the same household? In a word, chaos. Baby Girl, the feminine pure bred, faces off with Tazz, the male Germador, in caperous and humorous adventures which occur in everyday life with their owners, the Saunders. The typical American family who shares their lives and home with these two canines get more than they bargain for. Though these two Bonnie and Clyde canines are the main characters, there are numerous other four-legged accomplices throughout the story which provide a unique dynamic to this tale. The novel has a Paws and Effect - The Healing Power of Dogs informative quality which is intertwined with a Marley and Me wit. The conglomerate of themes surrounding these dogs and people spans various social issues and forms a Monet of how dogs fill our lives with love, humor, and hope.
