Instead of living and dying for the species, he insists on living and dying for his country; and so, as at the present moment, involves himself in gigantic conflicts which certainly do not assist the species any more than the individual to survive. That, as I understand it, is the biological theory of life which is always tending to become a religion or at least to justify the religion of patriotism. I do not myself understand how it satisfies the intelligence of anybody but it exists, and it is one of the causes of the present war. Only one of the causes, because men do instinctively want to fight with each other but they also want instinctively to justify whatever they do, including fighting and they get a justification, they get the moral pleasure which...
