In this deep midnight so intense and solemn, All nature a mysterious aspect wears; White sleeps the moonlight on the fallen column, On the stone balustrade, and broad stone stairs, That lead from the high terrace walk To shaded garden plots below, Which echoed once to lovers gentle talk, As they with linked souls paced to and fro On nights like this, in the far long ago. And ye, moss-mantled fountains, to their talking Made answering music with most sweet accord, Whilst evermore amid their happy walking, The silver beams of yon fair moon were pour d In such an overflowing stream, O er everything around, that even We well may think the midnight earth would seem To their glad eyes as pure and bright as Heaven. Without one tinge of sin or sorrow s leaven. These lovers liv d their term...
