

Eu Competition Law, Data Protection and Online Platforms: Data as Essential Facility (Hardback)

By Inge Graef

Kluwer Law International, Netherlands, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. International Competition Law Series Volume 68 EU Competition Law, Data Protection and Online Platforms. Data as Essential Facility provides a highly topical study of how EU competition law interacts with data on online platforms. All agree that the digital economy contributes to a dynamic evolution of markets and competition. Nonetheless, concerns are increasingly raised about the market dominance of a few key players. Since these companies hold the power to drive rivals out of business, regulators have begun to seek scope for competition enforcement in cases where companies claim that withholding data is needed to satisfy customers and cut costs. This book is the first to focus on how competition law enforcement tools can be applied to refusals of dominant firms to give access to data on online platforms, such as search engines, social networks, and e-commerce platforms - commonly referred to as the gatekeepers of the Internet. What s in this book: The question arises whether the denial of a dominant firm to grant competitors access to its data could constitute a refusal to deal , thereby leading to competition law liability under the so-called...

Reviews

Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Sallie Wiegand

It in one of the best book. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You wont feel monotony at at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for regarding in the event you check with me).
