The principles on which this Calendar has been constructed are as follows: 1. To make the Lessons in keeping with the seasons of the Church Year. 2. To avoid a fitness so recondite as not to be ordinarily perceived. 3. To study limits so as to make the Lesson complete in itself. 4. To begin with Genesis on Trinity Sunday, making it the starting-point for a series of Lessons in Historical Order. 5. To harmonize occasionally or arrange chronologically. 6. For the Trinity Season to take the Second Lessons from the Daily Calendar. Or better, perhaps, is a scheme of first lessons, based upon the 7 deadly sins. Even if the theological distinction is not admitted, Pride, Covetousness, Luxury, Envy, Gluttony, Anger, Sloth, cover a very large part of the ground: Genesis 3, certainly illustrates Pride and Gluttony (compare...
