Excerpt: . acter of the equities rather than that of the properties which indicates the type of business organization involved. Further, the distribution of the total capital among the different classes of investors can be determined from a statement of equities and constitutes a most significant basis for judging the financial condition of the enterprise. In other words, if one knows the total of a company s capital and the dispersion thereof between classes of equities he has information of possibly more vital significance than would be represented by a statement of the distribution of the capital among specific kinds of objective structures, commodities, and rights. Both classes are of course necessary for any adequate expression of the financial condition of an enterprise. THE EQUATION The property and equity columns given above, which represent the financial condition of the newly organized X Co. may be...
