

Jill Kelly Poems (Paperback)

By Alessandro Porco

ECW Press, Canada, Canada, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Adult-film diva Jill Kelly, in all her splendid forms (performer, producer, writer, and director), serves as the ultimate 21st century icon in Alessandro Porco's The Jill Kelly Poems. This debut collection presents a poetry of surfaces that, at once, cherishes its Bacchus-like existence and comes to terms with its very impossibility through intelligent, irreverent, and formally sophisticated poems: an ode to Christina Aguilera; a love-sonnet for Rambo; and an epitaph in memory of Sharon Tate. Porco's climactic sequence dramatizes, in gonzo fashion, the union of language and forms of poetry - a consummation that erupts from the page, leaving readers feeling a little bit dirty (that's right, with two r's) but, undeniably, wanting more. Ample double entendres and sexual punning; lewd bar-room balladeering; comic revisionist histories that expound, for example, on the origins of the thong; libidinal utopias filled with D-cup superheroes and militant villains - it's all in the name of good ol' fashioned silicone fun!
