McMurray, and Melvin Cornish, and Later Dismissed: Letter From the Attorney-General Soon afterwards the attention of the Department was called by the President to complaints that this indictment was not supported by the evidence submitted to the grand jury; that the grand jury itself, or some members thereof, were hostile to the defendants, and shared a prejudice against them prevailing among the white inhabitants of the Choctaw and Chickasaw territory and the adjoining district of Texas, arising from the fact that several thousand such persons had been foiled in attempts to procure their enrollment on the tribal rolls of the Indians in question through the efforts of the said counsel, at an estimated saving to the genuine Indians of some $15,000,000, and that the United States attorney had been actuated in his official conduct by personal enmity to the accused, arising mainly from the fact that they had replaced him as counsel for the said tribes of Indians. By direction of the President an inquiry was ordered into these charges and complaints, and Mr. Charles W. Russell, now Assistant Attorney-General, was ordered by Attorney-General Moody to conduct said inquiry. It is suggested in the first paragraph of the resolution proper that Special Agent John S. Mosby, of this Department, had been instrumental in causing the said indictment to be found, but this appears to be a misapprehension, founded apparently upon his having investigated the charges against United States Marshal Benjamin H. Colbert, of that district, and certain other parties against whom indictments were found about the same time,...
