THE MANCHILD (PAPERBACK)

Big Picture, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Manchild centers around two extraordinary people and their romance, within the background of a secret intelligence war. Darcy Regier was raped by her drunken father when she was fourteen. She claws her way out of the gutter and becomes an elite consort for Royalty Services in Chicago, North America s most exclusive VIP service. Marcus Riley is an intellectual genius with extraordinary psychic abilities. Marcus is forced to become a man at the age of seventeen when his parents die in an automobile crash. Darcy falls in love when she leaves Royalty and meets Marcus in Midland Illinois, a college town 150 miles south of Chicago. The lovers later fall out in a violent argument and Darcy moves to New York. At sixteen Marcus begins to develop unusual mental abilities that later propel him to New York and the hard-driving and exciting life of a high-stakes security trader. There, Marcus meets Carla Waverley of NYCBank. Carla is a hard-edged and beautiful day trader who introduces him to drugs and the seamy side of New York. A heartbroken Darcy watches helplessly as Marcus loses himself and descends into cocaine and heroin addiction. The story evolves when Holderness Parkinson discovers the plans of Admiral Frank Conte and Pietro Adolfone. Parkinson was Darcy s trusted mentor at Royalty Services and was a former senior intelligence officer. Conte and Adolfone are leaders of the rogue Twelve group. The Twelve is a secret intelligence organization composed of powerful families who can trace their elite genetic heritage back to pre-Christian Babylon. Their goal is to maintain the current economic and political structures in the face of demands for change. After a long struggle Marcus recovers from his...
