STRANGERS

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; Strangers is the twenty fourth novel by Anita Brookner, the Booker Prize winning author of Hotel du Lac. Paul Sturgis is a retired banker manager who lives alone in a dark little flat. He walks alone and dines alone, seeking out and taking pleasure in small exchanges with strangers: the cheerful Australian girl who cuts his hair, the lady at the drycleaners. His only relative, and only acquaintance, is a widowed cousin by marriage - herself a virtual stranger - to whom he pays ritualistic visits on a Sunday afternoon. Trying to make sense of his current solitary state, and fearing that his destiny may be to die among strangers, Sturgis trawls through memories of his failed relationships and finds himself longing for companionship, or at the very least a conversation. But then a chance encounter with a stranger - a recently divorced and demanding younger woman - shakes up his routine and when an old girlfriend appears on the scene, Sturgis is forced to make a decision about how (and with whom) he wants to spend the rest of his days. Each book is a prayer bead on a string, and each prayer is a secular, circumspect prayer, a prayer and a protest and a charm against encroaching night. (Hilary Mantel, Guardian). No one writes with more skill and honesty about the human condition and this book is possibly her finest. (Julie Myerson, Observer). A novel of great stylistic beauty and psychological truth. As great a reflection on fear and regret as Philip Larkin or Beckett. (Guardian). Like Graham Greene, she draws the reader into a world that has a character and signature all of its own. Strangers is a novel of sober brilliance, and the unerring, unflinching Brookner is...
