

Wally Wollemi and His Dinosaur Trees (Paperback)

By Anita Stanfield

Publicious Pty Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This story is a children s fantasy including Australian nature aspects on the topic of the newly discovered Wollemi pine. While Wally is magic, the story includes descriptions of the native bush, and its creatures. Mimi is also fantasy in that he derives from Aboriginal legends. The story starts in a narrow valley (gully) in the Wollemi National Park, where the original Wollemi pines were discovered. Like The Hobbit the story is a journey, and is unique as no other book has been written for children or on this topic. The opening scene starts with Wally Wollemi, and Mimi (coming out of his rock). Wally is magic in that he can become invisible. Wally is very distressed as his pines (he is their keeper) are very restless from fear of foxes and convicts- new arrivals in the pristine Blue Mountains bush. Mimi adds comic relief with his rhymes and silliness. Next morning Wally wakes to shock horror- the pines have disappeared in the night. In disbelief, Wally guesses that the pines have journeyed to the Warrumbungle range (he knows they have...
