

Wild Things: Stories (Paperback)

By Jaimee Wriston Colbert

BkMk Press of the University of Missouri-Kansas City, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Fiction. This collection of linked, rural-noir stories depicts endangered humans in endangered environment. Jaimee Wriston Colbert has given us a story collection for our times. In WILD THINGS, Colbert s human characters face displacement, just like the tropical alligator who appears in New York s Susquehanna River. They face sheer desperation, like that of an ohia tree clinging to solid lava on a Hawaiian volcano. In an environment where good-paying factory jobs are an endangered species, Colbert s protagonists confront such post- industrial predations as meth, homelessness, and the ghosts of lost dreams. Their survival is their triumph.
