USA Today bestselling author Catherine Gayle presents another novel in the Portland Storm hockey romance series. With her fathers health in question, Sara Thomas is focused on reducing his anxiety. Thats no small feat considering his high-stress job, not to mention her own distractions. Everyone knows Saras single; no one knows shes pregnant. Theres never a good time to unexpectedly get knocked up, but now is definitely not it. Regardless, she doesnt want anyone to know especially not her father until she has a game plan in place. But when Jonny, one of her fathers players, seeks vigilante justice on the ice, everything gets tossed out the window. Cam Johnsons role as a fourth-line winger with the NHLs Portland Storm entails more than scoring goals. He has to ensure other teams dont take liberties with the Storms star players. The way Cam sees it, thats the most important aspect of his job. His teammates call him Jonny; opposing fans call him a goon; the media calls him an enforcer. The titles unimportant. Cam will always fight for his teameven if he has to break the rules. Hes used to taking penalties, but he never meant for anyone else to suffer from his choices. When Cams actions cause Saras worst fears to be realized, he blames himself. Hes screwed everything up; now he has to set things right. Mutual attraction leads to lust, and suddenly Cam is taking penalties at every turn at least where Sara is concerned. Hes got to think on his feet or hell end up with a Delay of Game.
