Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The STRINGS of LIFE MEMOIRS of the PENTECOSTAL STRING BAND is a real life story of a southern gospel music band. Their exploits and adventures are recounted in this memoir of their personal stories. During the 1950 s this small band of six traveled throughout the Carolinas and Georgia spreading the gospel message in song. The adult men band members were all full time textile mill workers and were accompanied by two young daughters of one of the men members. They performed every Saturday and Sunday at various venues for over a decade of the band s existence. Their performances included their own radio program, area churches, regional singings, municipal gatherings, and a brief television program. The band s performances and travels as told by the remaining band members reveal much of the culture and history of the life in rural South Carolina during the 50 s. The story is told from the perspective of the band members and their families relating a personal side of their exploits and lives. The band members exhibited a strong Christian faith which led to the formation of the band. Each band member s life was interwoven with another by God s providence to create this instrument for telling the good news in song. The story narrates the individual life of the integral players and how they were brought together for a season to produce gospel music. As each story is told the weave of lives is blended together to reveal the creation of the band. The progression of the story then sets about recounting their adventures as they travel throughout the region. Their stories relate the setting of rural textile...
