The applications were taken to New York, and efforts made to re-insure the members as a whole. But it was found tbat the membership of the People s.Mutual taken in without medical examination by our predecessors would not be received by.any organization tbat promised permanent security without medical re-examination. Efforts were then made to join with other associations and thereby gain a large membership. After thorough investigation it was found net practicable It was impossible to pay claims in full without making additional assessments, and they would in time become too heavy for the members to stand, and it is very unsatisfactory to the trustees and beneciarles to pro rate the death claims. The trustees therefore decided to secure an arrangement with an association whose...
