Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Riches and Marvels of Hawaii: A Charming Description of Her Unique History, Strange People, Exquisite Climate, Wondrous Volcanoes, Luxurious Productions, Beautiful Cities, Corrupt Monarchy, Revolution, Provisional Government and Annexation Discovery Of The Islands. The visit of Capt. Cook to the Hawaiian Islands in 1778, from which time their discovery is commonly reckoned, was not by any means the first appearance of white men on those Islands. There are well authenticated Spanish charts of the Pacific, on which appear a group of islands in the latitude of the Hawaiian group, although ten degrees of longitude too far east. This discrepancy is accounted for by the dependence of those early navigators on dead reckoning for their longitude, chronometers not having then been invented. It is well known that the Spaniards were the earliest navigators of the Pacific, and there is a general agreement that Juan Gaetano discovered the group as early as 1555. There were many traditions among the natives of the appearance among them of strange people previous to this date. Among them, very likely, were members of shipwrecked Spanish crews, driven out of their course, and possibly stranded on those shores. It is a matter of history that a Japanese junk with four men on board reached the island of Oahu in 1823. Other similar arrivals may have preceded this.
