Katherine Noble might not be opposed to being landed, but she has a thriving psychotherapy practice in Manhattan. Will, handsome and attractive as he is, has a sheriff s deputy job and serious attachment issues in his little town on the Connecticut River in Vermont. Will can t go. He has a mother, Elyse, who never leaves her mountain, not since the days when, as a young bride, she was captured and brutally tortured. Will s not so good, either. away from his home, in crowds, in the concrete canyons of the city. But Will s determination is strong, and Katherine s love and faith in him have the power to heal. Together, they can defeat anything-even the monster who returns from Elyse s past. About the Author: Rebecca Skovgaard Rebecca Skovgaard is a midwife in Rochester, New York. She and her husband are raising (yes, still) their three children, who give them great pride. She believes that if you live in Rochester, you can never have too many spring bulbs in the garden or Christmas lights in the trees. Under the pen name Rachel Billings, she has published several erotic novels.
