Business is. Governments are. Communities will. Five Ideas: Issue 1 is about getting great ideas through observing simple things. The digital economy revolution isn't even in full swing yet. Fact or Fiction? People think a lot without knowing how to be thinkers. People know how to search but not how to research. First is good, good is better, first and good is best. Issue 1 presents a simple and accessible method for getting ideas that anyone can use. To prove it to you we will explore the method together and then use it to find some ideas.
