Rose Garden was carefully written as to be certain that this book would deliver the highest form of relaxation and entertainment to its readers. The author understands that modern technology has created a much faster pace in our world today; as a result, many people don't have time for long stories anymore. Rose Garden is a book of short miniature life parables delivered in a beautiful poetic shell with hidden meanings where you the reader will enjoy the search. The author also likes to compare these parables as to roses in the garden of life. All flowers are not roses, but they are still flowers each with a different meaning and purpose, so as it goes with these parables. Some make you think. Some make you laugh. Some challenge your imagination, while there are others that make you sing. Rose Garden seals the deal with its adoring inspirational cloud that rains joy, peace, and the love of God to all who reads it. Enjoy!!!.
