Excerpt from Gourds and Brains The author of this book was born on a farm near Tompkinsville, Kentucky, in the midst of the Pennyroyal section of the state. (The native people usually call it Penny Rile.) He had but little chance to attend school in early life, but studied morning, noon and night, reading history and committing speeches to memory. At the age of twenty-one, he went to Nashville, Tennessee, where he attended college. Worked one year on a farm in Illinois to get money to complete his education. Never saw a steam engine until he was twenty-one years old and on his way to college, but since that time he has traveled two hundred and twenty thousand miles in the United States and Canada. Was State Evangelist of Florida for eight years and preached two years in that state as pastor of some small churches. Made his home in Savannah, Georgia, for three and a half years, also lived in Mississippi a number of years serving the church at Meridian as pastor for three years and after that served at West...
