At 39, hes single, unemployed and living with his grandmother, Beatie, in Rochester, New York. Although most of his days are spent drinking at a downtown bar with a group of fellow outcasts, he still clings tightly to the belief that he will achieve greatness, just as his late mother predicted. The problem is he cant figure out how. David doesnt realize it, but when Beatie tells him shes ready to die and wants his help, its a blessing in disguise. For this request inspires David to try to change Beaties mind by bringing the Academy Awards to Rochester; and puts in motion a plan to revive her spirits, his city and the lives of all those who live there. Along the way, he battles self-doubt, loneliness and Cornelia Candee, Rochesters evil mayor, who tries to steal his idea about the Oscars and use it as a way to turn the citys historic High Falls into a waterslide park. Acknowledging the inevitable gap between our dreams and the reality of our lives, Goliath Gets Up examines the journey we take trying to bridge that gap and make a difference in the world. What makes someone great Come along with David and find out. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
