One set of philosophers, led by Benjamin Franklin, proclaim that the surest road to wealth is industry and economy. But another answers that the Chinese, for two thousand years, have excelled all other races and nations in these two virtues, and yet are distinguished, not for their wealth, but rather for the poverty of the great majority of their people. Something, then, besides mere industry and economy is required even to amass wealth. The great religious reformers and prophets, as Boodh, Confucius, Plato, Our Savior, Mohammed and Luther, have held up religion as the panacea for all...
