The Book That Will Not Open. the Hearts That Refuse to Close

By S F Hochman

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book was born from brainstorming with more than 75 students at two premier Jewish Day Schools in southern New Jersey. After passionate debate and discussion with each group, the author weaved their thoughts, plots and character suggestions into four stories that string together the themes of social justice, tolerance, respect and the healing powers of hope and faith. The Book That Will Not Open takes place in a Jewish day school where strange doings suddenly occur. Many students start to wonder whether they may be experiencing a new onslaught of the Plagues. For the source of their troubles, some point to a mysterious book that will not open. Some think Hashem may be punishing them for bringing miraculously healthy yet delicious sufganiyot into the school. One lone girl, Shadassah, thinks differently. She questions everything while learning the meaning of faith. In The Education of Figdot Trumplerdorf we are drawn deeper into the world of education and a battle between good and brilliant, and student versus principal. While battles, even intellectual, can lead to animosity, one young student...
