

Blue Sky Winter: A Christmas Tale (Paperback)

By Brandon Berntson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jedediah Delaney is out spending the holidays shopping with Hannah Olstead. In the skies above, he longs for snow, but the night is clear. Another entity, however, is about to present itself, one born from the lies and shadows of Jed's very own mind. Suddenly, Jed finds himself transported to the winter landscape he longs for, only the snow is far more bitter and cruel than he'd hoped. On his journey, he finds a boy in rags, and vows to get him to safety. But the blizzard proves endless. Hannah is still lost back in the city without him, and on the horizon, a massive shadow looms darker than the night. Yet, hope lies in a beacon glowing in the distance through the harsh and blinding snow. Jed is not only being led to a different time and place, but into a confrontation with three different versions of himself, all of which he has to come to grips with if he wants to overcome the Lies and Shadows: his past, his present, and his future.
