In Wisconsin taxpayer A is used to check the accuracy of taxpayer B. What is outgo to B is income to A. B is asked to state with respect to certain important items of outgo the names and addresses of the recipients. There is thus a cross check of which the federal government could probably not avail itself. With one group of taxpayers the federal government has a great natural advantage: the large interstate corporations, only a part of whose business is transacted in Wisconsin. But the Wisconsin income tax has, on the whole, encountered very little difficulty with this class of taxpayers, and such difficulty as has been encountered...
