Excerpt from Transactions of the Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the American Laryngological Association: Held in the City of Washington, D. C., May 30, 31, and June 1, 1894 Ever mindful of its obligation to the world at large, may it never happen that our association Shall fail to hold in remembrance its duty to itself. While its future is full of promise, it is also not devoid of possible dangers. Lack of interest on the part of the older members, the multiplication of other societies. And, finally, those two elements which are the greatest bane of association work, namely, the introduction of society politics and the inordinate desire for self-aggrandizement - pecuniary and social - all of these may hover over the future of any organization, ready to confront it with deadly peril. As to our founders, their lively interest in all that pertains to our success eloquently proves that their loyalty is as strong today as was their faith in 78. With regard to the multiplication of special sections and societies, the more good ones we can have, the...
