Excerpt from Our Saviour s Example: A Discourse Delivered at Lagrange, Georgia, Before Students of the Lagrange, the Before the Students of the Lagrange Female Institute, November 28th, 1847 In Christendom, no human example is perfect. Every life is stained with blots. Defect and aberration mar the brightest picture. So that a shrewd observer of human nature, and one versed in society and the ways of men, has said, If you wish to admire a great man, keep at a distance from him. Example is better than precept, because it is something visible and tangible. Here we see one of the great benefits resulting from the mission of our Saviour to the world. He came to be a sufferer and an actor - on the one hand, to lay down his life as a sacrifice to the justice of God, to make atonement for guilty men - on the other hand, to afford us in his life and conversation a perfect example.
