Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Rives, of Virginia: In Support of the Bill Introduced by Him Designating the Funds Receivable in Payment of the Public Revenue, and in Opposition to the Sub-Treasury Scheme Mr. President - I rise in pursuance of the notice I gave yesterday, to ask leave to bring in a Bill to designate the funds receivable in payment of the revenue of the United States. It will be borne in mind by the Senate that among the most prominent, and certainly not the least important objects presented both by the President s Message and the Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the immediate attention of Congress at their present session, is the expediency of some legislative provision defining the character of the funds to be received, in future, in discharge of the public dues. From the intimate connection between the collection of the public revenue and the general currency of the country, this question has, in my estimation, far more essential bearings on the great interests of the community, than any which the President has submitted...
