LISTENING TO THE THUNDER, POEMS (PAPERBACK)

Oliver Arts and Open Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You fall quiet when you hear a great truth, and each one of Helen Tzagoloff s riveting poems in Listening to the Thunder lets you enter that silence of significance. From pictures of World War II Russia in a very young child s eyes to images of post-war America from an adolescent s view, to the perspective of a sophisticated woman and mother, these poems are piercingly clear, without judgment, in their stunningly deadpan lines. Huge upheavals funnel down into a single artifact, say, an abandoned apron, in Tzagoloff s unforgettable mixture of innocence and experience. The poems are searing, funny, moving and as charged with atmosphere as the moments before and after thunder. Molly Peacock.
