DOUBLE INDEMNITY: HAND WRITTEN (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sunshine peeked through the low hanging clouds, casting a glimmer of light across the city skyline. The wet sidewalks and streets reflected the predawn evidence of the earlier thundershowers. A forecast of sunny weather, along with high winds between 20 to 25 miles per hour, was the latest update at the top of the hour newscast. Bob listened to the car radio as he sat sipping his steamy coffee. Parked down the street near the front entrance of the Goody Hotel. The daily newspaper opened wide, covering the steering wheel. This was a daily routine with Bob, while waiting for a fare. It was 7 AM, and the bustle of the residents was increasing with each passing minute. Steam from the cup of coffee, sitting on the dash, was beginning to fog sections of the windshield. Robert Champion had been a taxi driver for the past 15 years. His limited education, plus a slight stuttering in his speech kept him in his present occupation. An even-tempered man who had recently been divorced after eight-teen years of faithful and dedicated matrimony. One child, born early in the relationship, a son, who just a month ago turned 16. Boyd was fast in becoming more and more to be just like his mother. His interests were mainly in running errands, and doing chores around the house. He didn't seem interested in hanging out with the guys, or in any sport plus he didn't have a girlfriend, unlike other boys his age. Boyd was content being at home, watching TV, or fetching items that his mother would send him after. This type of behavior had Bob quite upset that he wasn't able to...
